Riders have 2 minutes to gain as many points as they can by jumping jumps of their own choice in any order. Each jump is worth different points- the harder the jump, the more points it is worth. Each jump can be jumped twice, once in each direction. If the jump is knocked on the first attempt it cannot be jumped a second time in the other direction. No points are gained or lost for jumps that are knocked. Refusals also do not lose any points, however three refusals at the same jump will result in elimination. There will also be a 65cm joker and a 1.05m joker. Riders must select before the start of their round which joker they will be attempting (if any) the joker is worth 100 points. However, if the joker is knocked, the rider loses 100 points. Ribbons will be awarded in two sections -65cm joker group and 1.05m joker group. ### Guide to events

Handler/ presentation: This is a led event, the horses wear saddles and bridles with stirrups run up. The judge is looking to see who can handle their horse on the ground at the walk and the trot, as well as assessing the overall presentation of the horse and the rider. So, nice clean boots, tidy hair, and a well groomed horse will certainly get you extra points! Practice leading your horse or pony so that it will walk and trot with you by its shoulder. It should be able to walk, trot, halt and turn while you lead it.

Rider class: The judge is assessing the position and effectiveness of the rider. The rider should be aiming to keep the best position possible, while also remaining calm and in control of their mount. Depending on your age, you will probably be asked to do a walk, sitting trot, rising trot, canter on both legs and a simple change. But don't worry- the judge certainly won't make you do anything you're not up to yet.

Working equitation:

Guide your horse through an obstacle course and get scored on the ease with which you complete each obstacle. The course will be available on the day.

Musical freestyle: Pick a song you like and co-ordinate a matching costume if you wish! You have two minutes to wow the judges doing anything you like. Use your imagination!!

Fancy dress: self explanatory although helmets must still be worn.

Sporting events: Are very easy to learn. We will show you what to do on the day, and if you're attending camp, you will learn them then.

Juniors are under 12 years of age. Seniors are aged 12-17. Adults are 18 and over.

This show is meant to be fun, enjoyable, and a great learning experience for everybody. Please help your fellow riders when you can, and give everyone plenty of encouragement! We love to see cheering, applause, and riders congratulating each other!!!

Riders will be required to sign a waiver before competing. Please print it out and bring to the show. Please do not drop your child off without having arranged payment and signing the waiver.

The judges decision is final.

In the case of wet weather, the show may be postponed. All announcements will be posted on facebook.

We will have jackets and t shirts available for purchase on the day but cannot guarantee sizes. Please order in advance for your guaranteed sizes.

You do not have to attend Redlands Stables to attend the show. All riders are welcome.
