Leasing a horse at Redlands Stables

Leasing is the perfect way to try out having a horse of your own, without the commitment! You may be looking at purchasing a horse in the future, or perhaps your circumstances just don't give you the time to have a horse full time.

Here's how it works

You can either do a full lease or a half lease.

A full lease is for six days a week. You choose the days. If you choose a full lease the horse will not be used in the riding school, or ridden by anyone else without prior permission.

Full lease rates

Pony (under 14hh) $218.33 per week ($31.19 per day)

Galloway (14-15hh) $262 per week ($37.43 per day)

Horse (15hh and over) $314.40 per week ($44.91 per day)

A half lease is for three set days a week including one weekend day. Generally, if two people are both half leasing the same horse, both parties converse with each other regarding days, swap overs, etc.

Horses on a half lease are used in the riding school for the rest of the time if they're not leased by 2 people.

Half leases rates

Pony (under 14hh) $145.53 a week ($20.79 per day)

Galloway (14-15hh) $174.64 per week ($24.95 per day)

Horse (15hh and over) $209.57 $29.94 per day)

Please note;

- Horses are not machines and have good and bad days just like people.
- Lessees are to ride sensibly at all times and keep in mind that jumping is to be kept to a suitable height for your horse and the horse is not to be overworked. Anything, other than pole work or crossrails, should not be undertaken more than once a week.
- You will be catching, rugging and saddling/ unsaddling your own horse. Riders must be able to safely do all these things before a lease can start.
- Riders under 18 years must have a parent/ guardian present at all times whilst on Redlands premises.
- You must be attending at least one group lesson a week at Redlands.
- If you are leasing a horse, you have a preference to ride your lease horse in lessons on non-lease days. Lessons are not included in your three days of riding (so you could ride three days and have a lesson on a 4th day. Lessons are charged at additional fees.) This does not apply if your horse is half leased to another rider.
- You can come and ride at any time you choose. We have a large arena with jumps. Feel free to spend as much time as you like with your horse on the leased days. Horses love to be fussed over.
- Daily feeding and rugging is taken care of by us.
- You need to come for a lesson/ trial first to try the horses and see which one might suit you. We do not do free trials so this is at a cost to you.
- The minimum lease period of time is one month and four weeks notice is required for the cancelling of a lease. Leases roll over to the following month.

- Before leasing a horse you need to become a member of Equestrian Australia which covers your own personal accident insurance. This is arranged by you.
- Fees are payable one month in advance. There are no refunds of fees for bad weather or rider illness. Please understand that there will be days when the arena, and jump paddock, are not able to be used due to rain.
- You can end your lease at the end of any month with four weeks notice.
- In the event your horse is unwell, lame, or not able to be ridden, for more than a few days, we will provide you with another suitable horse to ride. If we can't provide you with another horse, you can put your lease on hold until your horse is better.
- You can take your horse to pony club, shows, or clinics if you like. We provide transport to events at an additional cost. Transport must be pre-approved by Georgia or Jeremy in advance and may be declined if the risk of injury to the horse is present or there are other circumstances that means we cannot transport your horse.
- Your horse is not able to be ridden by friends/ family members or anyone other than the person leasing the horse. This is a strict rule and can result in automatic cancellation of the lease if not adhered to.
- If your horses gear is damaged due to neglect (leaving gear where horses can tread on it and damage it, leaving gear outside not put away, treating gear carelessly, not putting rugs back on properly) you will be asked to replace it.
- Unfortunately horses are not bikes and still need to be fed and cared for while you are away on holidays etc so if you choose to break your lease for whatever reason your horse will become available for another rider to lease and we cannot hold your lease for you unless full lease fees are paid.

Here's what your lease includes:

- Equipment for your horse including saddle, saddlecloth, bridle, exercise boots. If you have your own saddle and gear to use, that's fine too, as long as it fits the horse properly.
- Appropriate rugs for your horse.
- All feed, worming, vet, and farrier costs.

What it doesn't include:

- Your Equestrian Australia membership to cover your personal insurance.
- Transport to competitions/ pony club/ clinics.
- Extra fees for any plaiting, clipping etc that you require.
- Your own clothing and equipment (including whip, spurs).
- Horse massage fees (on an as needed basis).
- If your horse is required to wear shoes for competition purposes, there will be an additional fee of approximately $44 each time they are shod (every six weeks); and
- Extra feed and bedding costs for competition purposes (at cost).
